

Readings for July 29

A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing. (John 6:2) If you want a key to understanding the Gospel of John, you could probably do no better than to focus on the word "sign." In the first half of his Gospel (chapters 1-11), John recounts seven signs, or miracles, that Jesus performed. Then in the second half (chapters 12-21), he devotes all his time to the greatest sign of all: Jesus' cross and resurrection. In today's Gospel, we see a large crowd following Jesus because they were impressed by these signs. Who else could turn water into wine or raise a dead boy with a mere word? They wanted to see more, and Jesus didn't let them down. He performed yet another sign: feeding more than five thousand people with only five loaves of bread and two fishes!

Over the next few Sundays, we will hear how Jesus explains this miracle and how important it is for us. He'll tell us that this multiplied bread points to the true Bread of Life—his own Eucharistic flesh, which he will give "for the life of the world" (John 6:51). He'll tell us that this special Bread of Life is greater even than the manna that Moses gave the Israelites in the desert (6:32). And best of all, he'll promise to raise up "on the last day" everyone who eats this bread with faith and trust in him (6:54).

These are only three of the many promises Jesus has made to us. He promises to be with us, to teach us, to heal us, and to lift us up. He promises to feed us with his very life, and after this life, he promises to open heaven itself for us. This is how good Jesus is!

Today is a perfect day to fix your eyes on Jesus, the Bread of Life offered at Mass, and thank him for everything he has promised you. It's also a perfect day to tell him that you want to keep following him so that you can receive each and every blessing he has in store for you.

"Thank you, Jesus, for giving us your Bread of Life!"

Readings for August 5

Be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self. (Eph 4:23-24)

There are usually two sections to an epistle by St. Paul. The first section usually focuses on theological teaching, and the second section on practical living. Today's second reading is no exception.

St. Paul understood that the next step after Baptism and initial conversion was sanctification. Paul knew that we all have many valuable gifts and virtues—kindness, patience, peace, and courage. He also knew that we have many attitudes and philosophies that wage war against these gifts and virtues—anger, maybe, or resentment, lust, or selfishness.

Paul called these virtuous ways the “new self” and he called the sinful ways the “old self.” His approach to this battle is probably still the best way for us to grow in holiness. Simply put, it is “Put away the old self” and “Put on the new self” (Eph 4:22, 24).

Paul saw this process of “putting on and putting off” as the true battle going on in our hearts and minds. He was sure that if we could win little battles each day, then we could gradually be transformed into the very likeness of Jesus.

Thinking this way can lead us to conclude that this battle is all up to us. But that is far from the truth. Even Paul, who was as self-confident as they come, believed that he needed God’s help to win the battle. That’s why he liked to emphasize the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts (Rom 8:9; 1 Cor 3:16; Gal 4:6).

So be alert today and every day. Pay attention to the battle going on inside of you. Ask the Spirit to help you see why you acted with kindness and love on one occasion and why you fell to deception or resentment on another occasion. Do this every day, and ask the Spirit to strengthen you for this battle. Over time, you’ll find the “new self” becoming more and more prominent.

“Lord, help me to win the spiritual battle.”

Music

Schola Cantorum - Summer Hiatus and Openings –

The Schola Cantorum is on summer hiatus, returning on the first Sunday after Labor Day, September 9.

There are a limited number of openings in the Schola in all voice parts for experienced singers. Prospective singers must have significant adult choral experience, good sight-reading skills, and a pleasant, agile voice. The commitment of time and focused energy is significant, particularly at Christmas and during Holy Week. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings, 7 - 9pm, in weeks when the choir is singing. Rehearsals begin on August 29. If you have the appropriate experience and a desire to serve our Cathedral parish community in this very special way, please contact the Director of Music Ministries, Tom Stehle at tstehle@stmatthewscathedral.org.

Volunteer Cantor Position Available – The Cathedral Music Ministry is looking for experienced cantors to be placed in occasional rotations for the 5:30pm Sunday Masses and the 8:30am Masses. If you have an interest and the requisite skills, please contact our Director of Music, Tom Stehle, at the email address above.

Great Organ Completion - New Work Begins the Week of August 5 – Thanks to the generous support of hundreds of parishioners and friends who have embraced the vision of a completed instrument and sacrificed to make it possible, the Cathedral Great Organ will be completed this year!

Twenty-three years ago, the first phase of the installation of the Great Organ began. Although it is visually impressive and appears complete, only 2/3 of the pipes were installed at that time. Even in its incomplete state, it was hailed as one of the most impressive pipe organs in the region and is perfectly enhanced by the acoustics of our Cathedral.

Six years ago, we began a campaign to complete the organ. Within three years we met our goal. We were very fortunate to engage the original builder, Lively-Fulcher Organ builders, to complete the instrument.

On June 25, a partial dismantling of the current organ began. New chests and pipes will be installed beginning the week of August 5. At times you will see scaffolding and some façade pipes missing. When the organ is complete this fall or early winter, you will notice dozens of sounds that you have never heard before. It will be as if whole sections of an orchestra that have been silent are now playing!

If you have questions, please contact Tom Stehle (email address above), who will attempt to answer them in periodic bulletin updates.

Organ Dedication Recital and Concert Series – We plan to celebrate the completion of the Great Organ with a dedicatory recital and a concert series next year. If you are interested in helping financially as these festivities are planned, please contact Tom Stehle at the email address at left, or watch the bulletin for details.

Cathedral Coffeehouse – Join the Cathedral Young Adults each Sunday after the 5:30pm Mass for "Catholic Stuff in 20 minutes or less." On July 29, come for part 3 of our series on Jesus, "Why it matters that we know certain things about Jesus." On August 5, we begin a series on "Being a Disciple in the Professional World," and on August 12, Bishop Dorsonville joins us after celebrating the 5:30pm Mass. Coffeehouse meets in the West Conference Room. Come on down!

Lecturas del 29 de Julio

Recojan los pedazos sobrantes, para que no se desperdicien. (Juan 6, 12).

Cuando Jesús les dice a Felipe y Andrés que den de comer a la gran multitud, ellos se deben haber preguntado: "¿Qué quiere decir? ¡No tenemos comida para tanta gente!" Pero fueron a buscar lo que hubiera y encontraron a un muchacho que tenía dos peces y cinco panes de cebada. ¡Era demasiado poco!

Cuando nos encontramos con dificultades en el día —por ejemplo, tratar con un compañero de trabajo con quien no nos llevamos bien o tener que hacer malabarismos con las exigencias de la vida familiar— pensamos que no seremos capaces de salir adelante; nos parece que no tenemos todo lo que se necesita para terminar bien el día y mucho menos para ser de utilidad a Dios.

Pero ¿qué hizo Jesús con los dos pescados y cinco panes? ¡Alimentó a cinco mil personas! Es decir, resolvió una situación crítica y de paso dejó en claro que no es el tamaño de la ofrenda lo que importa, sino su compasión y su poder. Entonces, ¿qué podemos aprender de este milagro?

Primero, que cuando le damos algo al Señor, poco no significa poco. Él puede hacer grandes cosas si de buena gana le damos de lo que tenemos. Si lo que le damos es apenas diez minutos de oración apacible, él nos llena de su amor y nos muestra cómo amar a nuestros semejantes; cuando preparamos una comida para una familia necesitada, Dios sacia su hambre y les recuerda que tienen dignidad y son amados.

Segundo, nada se desperdicia en la economía divina. Incluso los "pedazos" sobrantes de nuestros actos de amor son valiosos para el Señor. El Señor ve y le importan los pequeños sacrificios que nadie nota, por ejemplo, el esfuerzo no reconocido que dedicamos al ayudar a alguien.

Así que ¡ánimo! Ofrécele al Señor lo que tengas y ten la plena confianza de que él lo multiplicará. Ofrécele tu tiempo de oración y el amor a quienes están contigo, y contempla cómo el Señor satisface las necesidades de la gente por intermedio tuyo.

"Señor mío Jesucristo, lléname de tu amor, te lo ruego, y úsame como instrumento para alimentar y bendecir a mis próximos."

Lecturas del 5 de Agosto

El que viene a mí no tendrá hambre, y el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed. (Juan 6, 24)

Hoy encontramos a Jesús en la otra orilla del lago. La gente se asombra al ver que el Señor ya se encuentra allí, y le pregunta cómo lo hizo, pero Jesús no responde; más bien, les echa en cara que lo buscan porque les ha dado de comer, pero no porque hayan entendido el significado de la multiplicación de los panes. Han comido, pero “no han visto signos”; han recibido pan hasta saciarse, pero no han aprendido nada.

Cuando le preguntaron a Jesús “¿Qué necesitamos para llevar a cabo las obras de Dios?”, él respondió con toda claridad: “La obra de Dios consiste en que crean en aquel a quien él ha enviado.” La “obra de Dios” más extraordinaria que podemos hacer es abrir el corazón e invitar a Jesús a que haga en él su morada, nos llene de su presencia y nos transforme.

En realidad, la gente no buscaba a Jesús mismo, buscaba lo que él les podía dar. Como aún no lo conocían, consideraban que la manifestación de Dios era la Ley escrita. Por esto, Juan afirma claramente que el enviado de Dios es Jesús y que la obra de Dios no consiste en esforzarse por conocer mejor la Ley, sino conocer mejor a Jesús y seguirlo a él.

Todos tenemos sed del amor divino y queremos que el Señor nos llene de su gracia. En lo profundo, todos anhelamos llegar a una íntima comunión con Dios y experimentar su aceptación y su amor paternal. Busquemos, pues, su presencia cada día en la oración y recibamos la Sagrada Eucaristía con fe y devoción; así el Señor nos colmará de sus bienes. Confiamos del todo en él; pidámosle su gracia para amar a nuestros familiares y estar dispuestos a ayudar al prójimo. Creamos en él de todo corazón; así habremos aprendido a hacer la “obra de Dios” en esta vida.

“Señor mío, Jesucristo, qué maravilloso es que quieras comunicarme tu vida y tu amor. Te doy gracias, Señor, porque tú eres el pan de vida que me alimenta y me fortalece. Hoy quiero recibirte, Señor, con amor y confianza, y estar siempre unido a ti.”

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Last year on this solemnity, Pope Francis reminded us that Mary is the first Disciple, preceding us in the pilgrimage of life and faith.

"In the home of Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah, where sadness once reigned for lack of children, there is now the joy of a child on the way: a child who will become the great John the Baptist, the precursor of the Messiah. And when Mary arrives, joy overflows and gushes from their hearts, because the invisible but real presence of Jesus fills everything with meaning: life, family, the salvation of the people. Everything! This joy is expressed in Mary's voice in the marvelous prayer that the Gospel of Luke has conveyed to us and which, from the first Latin word, is called Magnificat. It is a song of praise to God who works great things through humble people, unknown to the world, as is Mary herself, as is her spouse Joseph, and as is the place where they live, Nazareth. ... I would like to ask you — and also myself — but do not answer out loud — each of you respond in your heart: "How is my humility?"

... Here is the exclamation of Elizabeth: "Blessed is she who believed" (Lk 1:45). In that house, the coming of Jesus through Mary created not only a climate of joy and fraternal communion, but also a climate of faith that leads to hope, prayer, and praise.

We would like to have all of this happen today in our homes too. Celebrating Mary Most Holy Assumed into Heaven, we would once again wish her to bring to us, to our families, to our communities, this immense gift, that unique Grace that we must always seek first and above all the other graces that we also have at heart: the grace that is Jesus Christ!

By bearing Jesus, Our Lady also brings to us a new joy full of meaning; she brings us a new ability to traverse with faith the most painful and difficult moments; she brings us the capacity of mercy, in order to forgive each other, to understand each other and to support each other.

Mary is the model of virtue and of faith. Today, in contemplating her Assumption into Heaven, the final fulfillment of her earthly journey, we thank her because she always precedes us in the pilgrimage of life and faith. She is the first Disciple. And we ask her to keep us and support us; that we may have a strong, joyful and merciful faith; that she may help us to be saints, to meet with her, one day, in Heaven."

—From the Angelus, Pope Francis, August 15, 2017, Solemnity of the Assumption

Let us rejoice in the Lord and celebrate this feast in honor of the Virgin Mary, at whose assumption the angels rejoice, giving praise to the Son of God!

MASS SCHEDULE FOR THIS HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION
