

Readings for October 14

... with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come. (Mark 10:30)

Today in Rome, Pope Francis will canonize Archbishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador, in addition to Pope Paul VI.

Selected as archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, Romero served during a time of intense political turbulence and religious persecution. Through his homilies, radio sermons, and newspaper articles, Romero became the voice of his country's conscience. Constantly referring to the message of the gospel, he condemned the violence and corruption that plagued his country.

Countless threats against his life didn't deter Romero. In one homily, he said, "You can tell the people that if they succeed in killing me, I forgive and bless those who do it. Hopefully, they will realize they are wasting their time. A bishop will die, but the Church of God, which is the people, will never perish." On March 24, 1980, as he was saying Mass, a lone gunman stood at the door of the chapel and fired. Romero, who was standing at the altar, was shot in the heart and died on the spot.

In his letter announcing Romero's canonization, Pope Francis wrote, "In the beautiful land of Central America, bathed by the Pacific Ocean, the Lord granted his Church a zealous bishop who, loving God and serving brothers and sisters, became the image of Christ the Good Shepherd. In times of difficult coexistence, Archbishop Romero knew how to lead, defend and protect his flock. . . . And at the moment of his death, while he celebrated the Holy Sacrifice of love and reconciliation, he received the grace to identify himself fully with the One who gave his life for his sheep."

Oscar Romero lived out today's readings. He chose God's wisdom over the wealth and comfort of the world. He proclaimed the word of God in a way that cut people to the heart. And he gave everything to the poor of El Salvador. May his witness move all of us to answer the cry of the poor and downtrodden.

"St. Oscar Romero, pray for us."

News & Notes

Young Adult Coffeehouse – Join the Cathedral Young Adults for their “Get More out of Mass” Coffeehouse series in the West Conference Room, right after the Sunday 5:30pm Mass. The topic on October 14 is the Final Blessing and Dismissal. Come on down!

Eucharistic Holy Hour and Confessions – All are invited to our monthly Eucharistic Holy Hour on Monday, October 15 from 6 to 7pm, with confessions during the hour (English only). Come, spend a few moments with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and pray for His Church, and yours.

Music and Ministry

Choral Highlights – Have you noticed the Office of Music Ministries’ Choral Highlights on the parish website front page? It features lively descriptions and samples of versions of the upcoming Sunday’s music to be sung by the Schola Cantorum. Enjoy a taste, and let it draw you into Sunday’s Mass prayers and readings.

The Mass Through New Eyes: Unlock the Power of the Mass – Do you have the interest and the courage to discover how? Would you be willing to risk walking into a room knowing that you might not be able to leave as the same person? Come on Saturday, October 27, 9 – 11:30am, to discover a religious and spiritual experience that could change you forever. What is really happening at Mass? What is intended? And what is promised?

Thomas Stehle, Pastoral Associate for Liturgy and Director of Music Ministries at the Cathedral, will lead us through a discovery of the essentials of the Eucharist as celebrated by Roman Catholic Christians. We will examine why we believe the Mass is crucial to “live in the manner worthy of the call we have received.” We will unpack the elements of the Mass, and discover how its celebration nourishes and sustains the Body of Christ to which we claim to belong. The session will begin with a special musical morning prayer in the St. Anthony Chapel, and continue in the North Conference Room, with ample time for discussion. Registration is helpful but not required. (The session is limited to the first 70 participants.) We ask you to please email tstehle@stmatthewscathedral.org if you plan to attend.

Concert of Remembrance – We are honored to offer on Sunday, November 4 a special Remembrance Concert and prayer for our Cathedral friends and family who have died. This concert traditionally has featured Requiems by Gabriel Fauré and Maurice Duruflé. This year we include the well-loved Requiem of Herbert Howells, a meditation on death by Henry Purcell, a piece by Estonian composer Arvo Pärt commissioned in memory of those killed in the Madrid train station bombings of 2002, entitled Da Pacem (Give Peace), and a Psalm and folk song by another Estonian composer, Cyrillus Kreek. You also will hear a work by Washington composer Thomas Howe, Remembered Music, that was premiered here at the Cathedral. The concert concludes with Lux Aeterna by Argentine composer Fernando Moruja, whose O Bone Jesu was sung at the Midday Prayer with the Pope here in 2015. Prayers and readings interwoven with the music will make this a true meditation and memorial.

To have a deceased loved one remembered and included by name in the concert program, contact Tom Stehle (contact info at left) by Friday, October 26. You may make an online memorial donation by clicking here or contacting Tom.

Lecturas del 14 de Octubre

En el Evangelio de hoy, un hombre rico le pregunta a Jesús qué debe hacer para heredar la vida eterna y afirma que desde joven ha observado los mandamientos de Dios.

Jesús lo mira con amor y compasión y le hace una invitación precisa y clara: “Ve y vende lo que tienes, da el dinero a los pobres y así tendrás un tesoro en los cielos. Después, ven y sígueme.”

Pero, habiendo vivido muchos años confiando en la seguridad de sus riquezas, la razón del hombre objeta la perspectiva de despojarse de todos sus bienes: “Entonces, ¿de qué voy a vivir? ¿Cómo voy a mantener mi posición en la sociedad?” La idea de renunciar a todo aquello que le ha significado seguridad, bienestar y, por qué no decirlo, felicidad en su vida, para lanzarse a ojos cerrados a una aventura en la que le parece no tener seguridad de nada, le parece absurda.

No viendo ninguna salida convincente, se aleja triste. ¿Por qué triste? Porque no consigue comprender que en la propuesta de Jesús está el bien verdadero, el verdadero rostro de la sabiduría, la vida eterna que, equivocadamente, busca en las cosas creadas y no en Dios.

Jesús explica a los asombrados discípulos que las riquezas, que en el Antiguo Testamento eran consideradas un signo de la benevolencia divina, pueden ser para algunos el obstáculo más grande para acoger el Reino de los cielos.

El ser humano tiene un innegable anhelo de vida, de plenitud, de felicidad, pero la cultura del mundo, que promueve la superioridad del ser humano por encima de Dios, busca esa vida plena y felicidad en las cosas creadas, en los placeres efímeros y engañosos, en la autosuficiencia y en la superioridad frente al otro.

Y lo que el Señor nos propone en la frase “Vende lo que tienes, da el dinero a los pobres” es diametralmente opuesto, como lo afirma igualmente con estas otras palabras: “El que quiera salvar su vida, la perderá; pero el que pierda la vida por causa mía, la encontrará” (Mateo 16, 25).

“Amado Señor, yo también quiero llegar a merecer la vida eterna.”

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick
A Celebration of Healing
Sunday, October 21 at the 11:30am Mass

Do YOU know someone who is a: child or adult about to undergo or is recovering from surgery; or someone experiencing or being treated for a serious physical or mental illness or condition; or who is physically handicapped or seriously impaired by old age." If so, then we would like to invite them to receive this sacrament.

Of the seven sacraments, the Church classifies two of them as the sacraments of healing: Reconciliation (usually known as Confession) and Anointing of the Sick. Each of them involves healing the human person; one for our spiritual health and the other for our physical well-being. How these sacraments have been practiced in the life of the Church has differed over time. This brief summary is about the anointing of the sick. Historically, oil was widely used in the ancient world for a variety of life purposes: lighting, cooking, athletic preparation, special marking and especially healing wounds. So, it is not surprising that the New Testament includes reference to the use of oil, once in Mark's gospel and another in a letter of the apostle, James.

In the life of the early church, the common use of oil for healing was given a special blessing by the bishop to call upon God's power for the benefit of the sick. During the early centuries, the application of the blessed oil could be done by any of the baptized faithful, since it was primarily for the healing of physical defects. In later centuries, it began to be associated with the dying to heal the soul before death, especially as it was done concurrent with one's last confession. Thus, during these later centuries, this concurrent use of both sacraments led to limiting the sacramental anointing to those who were ordained, i.e. a priest.

All sacraments are for the benefit of the individual, but we are all members of the Body of Christ. So, when one member of the body is afflicted, so is the whole body. And as the physical body makes an effort to assist healing the afflicted part, so also the spiritual body is involved in healing the injured member. To reflect this theology, the Church encourages this sacrament to be administered as much as possible in a public way, even if administered in a hospital or nursing home. So, the sacramental ritual provides for celebrating the anointing as part of a community liturgy, such as Mass, much as we do for baptisms, first communions, and the other sacraments.

At St. Matthew's, our communal celebration is celebrated on the Sunday closest to the feast of St. Luke who is especially associated with the sick. There will be a similar celebration in February to enable our Hispanic parishioners to participate in this special sacramental celebration. We encourage your presence and participation

"If anyone of you is ill, he should send for the elders of the church, and they must anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord and pray over him." (James 5: 14)

How does Faith Direct work?

Faith Direct is a secure system that works directly with your bank or credit card—much the same as other direct payments you may have set up for utility bills or mortgage payments.

When do transactions take place?

Transactions take place once per month on the 4th or the next business day. The total amount of your gifts for that current month (both offertory & second/special collections) will be debited in one monthly total. The Cathedral will receive the funds 4 business days later.

Can I stop, increase, or decrease my payment at any time?

Yes, by calling Faith Direct at 1-866-507-8757 (toll free) by emailing info@faithdirect.net, or by logging in to your account through www.faithdirect.net.

How does the Cathedral benefit from my participation with Faith Direct?

The Cathedral will see a substantial increase in net revenue, a decrease in administrative costs, and a clearer picture of cash flow for their needs.

If you have any questions about the Faith Direct program, please call 1-866-507-8757 {toll free} or send an email to info@faithdirect.net, or contact Pam Erwin at the Rectory at 202-347-3215 x537 or perwin@stmatthewscathedral.org.
