

TODAY'S READINGS

I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity. (Luke 18:11)

Have you ever been around someone who has a knack for putting people down? It seems they feel good about themselves only when they're degrading someone else. Although we can't say for sure, that could be part of this Pharisee's motivation for thanking God that he's not like everyone else. He may be acting more out of fear and insecurity than out of pure pride or arrogance.

How about you? It's doubtful that you spend all your time judging everyone else. But are there other ways that you compare yourself? When you see someone's weakness, do you use that person as a measuring stick to judge yourself—"Am I doing better than him or worse?"

This spirit of comparison is something to watch out for; it can take the joy right out of your faith! If you find yourself thinking that way, remember that God isn't comparing you to anyone. He loves you just as you are. No matter how many times you hear that, it can still carry a hint of surprise. After all, we all need improvement, don't we? But this love of God must be the starting point for any genuine spiritual growth we experience. He just loves us, and there's nothing we can do to make him love us any less!

As a point of reflection today, try meditating exclusively on God's love for you. Don't dwell on your sins. He already knows about them! Just sit in his presence, and think of all the ways he cares for you. He sent his Son to die for you. He planned from all eternity that you would be part of his kingdom. He's constantly sending grace and blessings to keep you in his love. If you reflect on this long enough, you won't worry about how your neighbor is doing. You'll be too busy thanking God!

"Thank you, Father, for loving me just as I am right now. Thank you too for your grace, which can always help me become more like you."

FAITH FORMATION

Returning and Inactive Catholics Welcome! – If you are a Catholic who has been away, we invite you to be an active part of us again.

Landings is an 8-week series that offers “a safe place to land,” a place for listening and being heard, a place for asking questions and reconnecting with the faith as an adult. Contact: Deacon Stuart Wilson-Smith, C.S.P at swilsonsmith@paulist.org.

Small Faith Sharing Groups – Please join us this fall for our next series of small faith sharing groups to read and reflect upon Cardinal Donald Wuerl’s recent book, Ways to Pray: Growing Closer to God. Groups start the first week of November! For more information, contact Tricia Schmitt at Tricia.Schmittdc@gmail.com.

Saturday Bible Study – The Parables of Mercy will be the topic of Fr. Jack Hurley’s Bible Study on Saturdays, November 5, 12 and 19, from 10:30 to 11:45am in the East Conference Room. Besides your Bible, you might want to purchase a copy of The Parables of Mercy, published by Our Sunday Visitor.

The Cathedral Book Club – The book to be discussed at the Monday, November 14 meeting of the Cathedral Book Club in the West Conference Room, 6:45 – 8pm, will be The Name of God is Mercy, by Pope Francis. In the closing weeks of the Holy Year of Mercy, this meaningful reflection reiterates the Holy Father’s urgings that the Church not close the door on anyone.

Adult Confirmation 2017 Preparation – Each spring, St.

Matthew’s offers adult Confirmation preparation for active, baptized Catholics who already have received their First Eucharist. Registration forms are available in the rectory and on the parish website. Contact Theresa Prymuszewski at 202-587-5139 or tprymuszewski@stmattthewscathedral.org for more information.

On-site Assistant for Sunday Children’s Faith Formation – An On-site Assistant is needed for our Sunday Children’s Faith Formation program. The assistant must be available Sundays of the catechetical year (September - May) from 9 to 11am, at three Saturday retreats in the spring, and at two Sacramental celebrations (Saturday First Reconciliation, and First Communion at the 11:30am Mother’s Day Mass). Successful completion of the Archdiocesan Child Protection Policy also is required. To apply, contact Theresa Prymuszewski (contact info above).

JUBILEE OF MERCY

Did you know? – St. Matthew’s Cathedral is one of the designated pilgrimage sites at which visitors may receive the plenary (total) indulgence for this Holy Year of Mercy! For guidance on how to do this, pick up the Pilgrimage to the Holy Door brochure at Cathedral entrances.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time – “A merciful heart is motivated to move beyond its comfort zone. A merciful heart can go out and meet others; it is ready to embrace everyone. A merciful heart is able to be a place of refuge for those who are without a home or have lost their home; it is able to build a home and a family for those forced to emigrate; it knows the meaning of tenderness and compassion. A merciful heart can share its bread with the hungry and welcome refugees and migrants. To say the word ‘mercy’ along with you is to speak of opportunity, future, commitment, trust, openness, hospitality, compassion and dreams. But are you able to dream? When the heart is open and able to dream, there is room for mercy, there is room to caress those who suffer, there is room to draw close to those who have no peace of heart or who do not have the bare necessities to live, or who do not have the most beautiful thing of all: the faith.” (Pope Francis at World Youth Day) Celebrate God’s mercy with us this year at mercy.adw.org.

Papal Prayer Intentions – Please join in prayer for Pope Francis’ intentions for October: that journalists, in carrying out their work, may always be motivated by respect for truth and a strong sense of ethics; and that World Mission Day [October 23rd] may renew within all Christian communities the joy of the Gospel and the responsibility to announce it.

MARRIAGE

Couples who are interested in celebrating the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral are encouraged to visit the parish website to review our guidelines for weddings. The next step is to call the Rectory at 202-347-3215 and ask for the priest of your choice or the priest on duty, who can speak to you about marriage preparation and the possibility of scheduling your wedding at the Cathedral. Couples are expected to contact us at least nine (9) months in advance of the date on which they hope to celebrate their wedding.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Dijo el Papa Francisco en mayo de 2016: “El Jubileo extraordinario de la Misericordia... ilumina de modo especial la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones 2016 [que hoy celebramos]: nos invita a ver la misión a los pueblos como una grande e inmensa obra de misericordia, tanto espiritual como material.

“En esta Jornada Mundial de las Misiones, todos estamos invitados a ‘salir’, como discípulos misioneros, ofreciendo cada uno sus propios talentos, creatividad, sabiduría y experiencia para llevar el mensaje de la ternura y de la compasión de Dios a toda la familia humana, especialmente a los más cercanos.

“La Iglesia se interesa por los que no conocen el Evangelio, porque quiere que todos se salven y experimenten el amor del Señor.” Ella “tiene la misión de anunciar la misericordia de Dios, corazón palpitante del Evangelio” (Bula Misericordiae vultus 12), y de proclamarla por todo el mundo, hasta que llegue a toda mujer, hombre, anciano, joven y niño.

“La misericordia hace que el corazón del Padre sienta una profunda alegría cada vez que encuentra a una criatura humana; desde el principio, él se dirige también con amor a las más frágiles, porque su grandeza y su poder se ponen de manifiesto precisamente en su capacidad de identificarse con los pequeños, los descartados, los oprimidos.

“La manifestación más alta y consumada de la misericordia se encuentra en el Verbo encarnado. Él revela el rostro del Padre rico en misericordia, ‘no sólo habla de ella y la explica usando semejanzas y parábolas, sino que además, y ante todo, él mismo la encarna y personifica’ (San Juan Pablo II, Encíclica Dives in misericordia 2).” Con la acción del Espíritu Santo, podemos llegar a ser misericordiosos como nuestro Padre celestial, aprendiendo a amar como él nos ama y haciendo que nuestra vida sea una ofrenda gratuita, un signo de su bondad (MV 3).

“Que Santa María, ícono sublime de la humanidad redimida, modelo misionero para la Iglesia, enseñe a todos, hombres, mujeres y familias, a generar y custodiar la presencia viva y misteriosa del Señor Resucitado.”
