TODAY'S READINGS

The time of their visitation they shall shine. (Wisdom 3:7) Have you ever wondered why we bother to pray for those who have already died? After all, they've already passed from this life. The simple answer is because Scripture tells us to! Judas Maccabeus, an Old Testament hero, once sent money to Jerusalem to pay for a sin offering for some soldiers he had buried that day. The bodies of these soldiers were found with pagan tokens under them, indicating they had engaged in idol worship. Judas believed that his offering might help atone for their sin and bring them into heaven (2 Maccabees 12:38-46).

The Catechism teaches us that "all who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1030).

Today, why not dedicate your prayer time to interceding for those who have gone before you—both your loved ones and those you found it hard to love? We have no way of knowing who goes straight to heaven, who goes to purgatory, or how long each person stays there. But we do know that the souls of the righteous are at peace, even if they aren't yet perfected in holiness (Wisdom 3:3).

Prayer is never useless! Even if you pray for someone who is already in the full light of the kingdom, God will take your intercession and pour out a different blessing, maybe on the Church, on someone who doesn't yet believe, or even on you! All he's concerned about is that we continue to pray and work for the building up of his body, both here on earth and in heaven.

"Thank you, Jesus, for having reconciled us to your Father. Lord, may all who have gone before us be fully purified and enter the full light of your kingdom."

Fifteen men and women are going forward in the RCIA process, and sponsors are still needed. To learn more, contact Theresa Prymuszewski at 202-587-5139 or

TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Offertory Program Begins - Next weekend, we will begin the program "Take the Next Step" that asks everyone to reflect on the amount they give to the Offertory collection. This review will ask several questions:

- 1. Do I have a need to give or do I give only when there is a need?
- 2. Do I understand that there is an obligation to provide regular financial support to the parish?
- 3. Where does the parish fit relative to the other ways that I spend my money?
- 4. How much do I give to the parish on a weekly basic? (If you give monthly or quarterly, calculate your weekly commitment to put it in perspective.)
- 5. Is it too much, too little or just right?
- 6. If I am not at the parish for one or more Sundays, do I make up the amount that I have not given?
- 7. How much will I give each week during the coming year? We will be grateful for your prayerful participation.

NOTICIAS DE LA PARROQUIA

Elecciones del Consejo Parroquial – Este fin de semana 1 y 2 de noviembre día de elecciones de San Mateo. Los miembros que están inscritos en la parroquia tendrán la oportunidad de elegir a sus representantes en el Consejo que asesora y asiste al Rector desarrollando, organizando y apoyando programas, ministerios y otras actividades. Este año, quince feligreses excepcionales, incluyendo una pareja de casados buscando conjuntamente un asiento, han sido nominados. Las papeletas, incluyendo breves declaraciones de los candidatos, y las urnas están disponibles en la entrada principal de la Catedral y en el salón de conferencias del Norte durante las recepciones de Hospitalidad después de todas las misas excepto la de las 7:00 de la mañana.

El Programa de Ofrenda Comienza – El próximo fin de semana, se iniciará el programa de "Dando el próximo paso" lo cual nos pide a todos a reflexionar sobre la cantidad que damos en la colecta. Esta revisión nos hará varias preguntas:

- 1. ¿Necesito dar o doy sólo cuando hay una necesidad?
- 2. ¿Entiendo que existe la obligación de proporcionar apoyo financiero a la parroquia?
- 3. ¿Dónde encaja la parroquia en relación con el dinero que gasto?
- 4. ¿Cuánto doy a la parroquia semanalmente? (Si das mensual o trimestral, cuál es su compromiso semanal para ponerlo en perspectiva).
- 5. ¿Es demasiado, muy poco o justo?
- 6. ¿Si no estoy en la parroquia uno o más de los domingos, doy la cantidad que no he dado?
- 7. ¿Cuánto daré cada semana durante el año que viene?

Estaremos agradecidos por su devota participación.

¡¡¡ Muchas Gracias!!! – Muchas gracias a todos los que participaron en nuestra reciente cena para las personas sin hogar de nuestra vecindad, auspiciado por el comité de Justicia Social. Su donación de comida deliciosa, dinero y tiempo para organizar este evento nos permitió servir a varias personas. Ellos se sintieron muy bien y algunos decían que era ¡la mejor comida que habían tenido! Esperamos que usted y otros se unan a nosotros cuando tengamos la cena de primavera.

Sobres para las Ánimas – Los católicos, recordamos a nuestros seres difuntos de una forma especial en el mes de noviembre. Cada día durante el mes de noviembre se ofrecerá una misa especial por todos los difuntos. Sobres especiales para poner los nombres de sus seres queridos para que sean recordados en nuestra misa especial durante el mes de noviembre, los encontrarán en los bancos de la Catedral. Estos sobres se pondrán en el altar de la Capilla Nupcial.

Primer Viernes – Primer viernes de Exposición y Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento se celebrará después de la misa 12:10 del mediodía hasta 5:00 de la tarde este viernes 7 de noviembre en la Capilla del Santísimo Sacramento. Todos son bienvenidos a venir y adorar a nuestro Señor.

Día de los Veteranos – El martes 11 de noviembre Día de los Veteranos fiesta federal. La Catedral abrirá a las 7:30 de la mañana y cerrará a la 1:00 de la tarde. Las misas serán a las 8:00 y 12:10 del mediodía. No habrá confesiones ese día. La rectoría estará cerrada.

(SOME) Carrera por el Hambre - El equipo de San Mateo empezará su Día de Acción de Gracias de este año recaudando fondos para So Other Might Eat (SOME) en el treceavo año de la carrera por el Hambre. SOME provee comida, ropa, servicios médicos y de la salud mental y otros servicios sociales para nuestras hermanas y hermanos en necesidad. Nuestra meta de este año será recaudar $750. Si quisieras formar parte de nuestro equipo, visite www.some.org; haga clic a "Events" y luego escoja "Trot for Hunger." Haga clic a "Join Team." Luego escribe "Cathedral of St. Matthew" y siga las instrucciones. No es necesario que corra o camine si usted no puede asistir, también puede apoyar al equipo hacienda una donación monetaria usando la misma página. Leah Rochelle se pondrá en contacto con los participantes registrados el 25 de noviembre con detalles. Para más información, puede mandar un correo electrónico a Leah al lsrochelle@gmail.com. ¡Únase a nosotros a la Misa de 10:00 de la mañana, después de acabarla carrera!

Programa Navideño de Adopte-Una-Familia – La Catedral se está preparando para nuestro programa navideño de Adopte-Una-Familia. El año pasado pudimos proveer regalos para 56 familias de la comunidad, 80 invitados de nuestro Ministerio para las Personas Sin Hogar y se recogieron regalos para miembros de los hogares de la Comunidad de L'Arche. Si su compañía, grupo de amigos o familia están interesados en "adoptar" a una familia en necesidad, por favor póngase en contacto con el padre Rafael o Norma Canedo al 202-347-3215 o socialjustice@stmatthewscathedral.org.

LECTURAS DE HOY

n el día de Todos los fieles difuntos oramos especialmente por las almas del Purgatorio. La Iglesia enseña que todos ✓ los que mueren en la gracia de Dios, pero que aún no se encuentran perfectamente purificados, pasan por un proceso de lavamiento final; estos son los que logran "salvarse como quien escapa del fuego" (1 Corintios 3, 15; Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 1030-1032).

También hoy es una buena ocasión para celebrar la certeza de nuestra propia salvación. En el Bautismo, nuestra vida antigua quedó sepultada con Cristo y hemos resucitado con él a una vida totalmente nueva. En Jesús nos sentimos seguros, porque Dios no quiere que nadie se pierda. Ahora bien, ¿significa esto que si estamos bautizados podemos pecar todo lo que queramos? ¡Por supuesto que no! Dios no ha anulado sus mandamientos; además la lógica sola —para no mencionar la Sagrada Escritura— nos enseña que la regeneración del Bautismo debe ir acompañada de la fe y el arrepentimiento (Marcos 16, 16). Hoy, Dios quiere que su amor colme por completo nuestro corazón para que jamás queramos volver a ofenderlo a él ni a nadie más. Si logramos entender que antes estábamos perdidos en el pecado y que Jesús se ofreció libremente como sacrificio para salvarnos, lo lógico es que queramos imitar su conducta. El amor a Cristo nos moverá a purificarnos de todo vestigio de pecado, de toda actitud contraria a sus palabras y a su concepto de vida. La idea que uno tiene de sí mismo y del mundo cambiará, y poco a poco nos iremos pareciendo a Jesús.

Dios nos está llamando a la madurez espiritual, para recibir todos los dones que quiere darnos, regalos que nos comunicarán fortaleza y los medios necesarios para edificar su Reino y propagar su Evangelio. Por la poderosa acción de su gracia, podemos vivir día a día y cambiar el mundo. ¡Hagámoslo!

"Jesús, Señor y Salvador mío, te ruego que me concedas la gracia de amarte tanto como tú me amas a mí, a fin de que un día pueda llegar a la maravillosa gloria de tu Reino celestial."

St. Matthew's Cathedral Adopt-A-Family Program Thanksgiving Drive 2014

The Cathedral's Social Justice and Community Services committee is collecting grocery store gift cards to distribute to families who are in need this Thanksgiving.

We invite all parishioners to donate in two ways:

- 1) Purchase a $25.00 Safeway gift card and turn in to the volunteers who will be at the main entrance of the Cathedral during every Mass the weekends of November 1 & 2 and November 8 & 9.
- 2) You may also make a financial contribution of any amount and drop it in the same baskets those two weekends. Checks are welcome! Please make checks payable to St. Matthew's Cathedral (add "Adopt-A-Family Thanksgiving" on the note line) and place it in the attached envelope. Financial contributions can also be sent directly to the rectory.

We would like to receive donations no later than November 16 so that the families may receive their gift cards before Thanksgiving. Any donations that we receive above what is needed at this time will be used to provide emergency assistance to families in need throughout the year.

Please be as generous as possible, as there is a great need among many families in our parish community. Thank you very much for your generosity and support!

For more information, please contact Fr. Rafael Barbieri or Norma Canedo at socialjustice@stmatthewscathedral.org or call the rectory at 202-347-3215.

- 1) Compre una tarjeta de regalo de $25 de Safeway y entréguelo a los voluntarios quienes estarán en la entrada central de la Catedral durante cada Misa de los fines de semana de Noviembre 1 & 2 y Noviembre 8 & 9.
- 2) También puede hacer una contribución monetaria de cualquier cantidad y entregarlo a los voluntarios en los mismos días. ¡Se aceptan cheques! El cheque debe ser dirigido a St. Matthew's Cathedral (añade "Thanksgiving Drive" en la línea de nota). Las donaciones monetarias también se pueden mandar directamente a la rectoría.

Por favor entreguen sus donaciones hasta el Noviembre 16 para que las familias puedan recibir sus tarjetas de regalo antes del Día de Acción de Gracias. Experiences of Marriage and Family

Pope Francis noted this in a recent homily: "Families are the first place in which we are formed as persons and, at the same time, the 'bricks' for the building up of society."

The Extraordinary Synod of Bishops just concluded its first session concerning issues affecting marriage and the family. Much public comment has been made about what the synod bishops have been discussing. America, a Catholic magazine published by the Jesuits, recently included a special section containing a series of six personal reflections about the beauty and messiness of marriage and family. America has given us permission to reprint these reflections in our parish bulletin. This is the second of those personal reflections.

Parents at Work

By Kevin Clarke

Like a gazillion other working parents around the world, each school night my wife and I somberly confer like field marshals planning a Prussian offensive, prepping for the morning rush out the door to the big yellow bus on the corner. But it seems no matter how detailed our preemptive strategizing—the homework-signing, backpack-checking, clothes-readying and lunch-building—one or two or all four of our children will find some novel, if not diabolical way to turn what should have been our orderly march to the bus into a frantic, expletive-swallowing rout. It is most lovely to find yourself on a September morn chasing down a 6-year-old and menacing him with a bag of Cheez-It crackers and a missing pair of gym shoes in front of all the neighbors.

I was raised on reruns of "My Three Sons" and "Father Knows Best"; both shows featured characters who seemed to have the whole parenthood thing down pat. Yet it has been ages since I was able to get my cardigan and slippers on before some sort of meltdown occurred in my household. Between commuting and after-school activities, homework, after-work work and extra work on the weekends, I find myself wondering how much of the family-building my wife and I actually are accomplishing and how much we have outsourced the job to school, child care programs and an aging Nintendo Wii. How did I get here? Who can help me figure out how to do this thing called family?

It will not come as a shock to most readers to discover that being a family in the United States, the land of dual-income households, spotty child care services and long commutes, is not easy. I will also acknowledge that to a great extent I should be grateful for the things I mostly feel like complaining about. Parents in many parts of the world are not worrying over how their commute affects family life as much as they are agonizing over how to get more calories and clean water on the dinner table.

But the fact that other families face more daunting, existential challenges does not mean that those confronting parents in the United States can be easily dismissed. Most of us are trying to raise healthy, decent and merciful kids in a culture that seems bent on thwarting that aim. We are desperately trying to keep a toe in the middle class, saving for health crises and college educations or to pay off credit cards, while supervising and safeguarding our children's education and their moral, emotional and physical development. Most times we are just struggling; sometimes we are "failing," spinning our gears and only acquiring more debt and more worries no matter how hard we plan and work.

Unlike many other advanced economies, the United States does not maintain policies on mandatory vacation or sick days that can make family life easier. Its minimum wage traps a growing number of working parents in poverty. American companies are not required to offer the generous paternity leave typical of other Western states, and most do not. Extravagant tuition fees are pricing promising but affluence-challenged students out of higher education. Despite all the rhetoric on family values, too often in the United States it is every family for itself. When I think of the real threats to family life, it is this stress—the financial and practical obstacles to being a family in America—that most comes to mind, not the gender of two people who wish to get married.

We need the church to go to bat for us as an ally on these social and cultural challenges, but we could also use some help at the street level with the many practical frustrations of being a family today. Now that the parish school has closed, the Sunday catechism classes are a welcome support, but could the parish open a morning and afternoon child care service that is actually matched to real-world work schedules? How about some evening classes offering guidance on family budget making or escaping from credit card debt? Can families at your parish share baby-sitting leads?

I know the bishops meeting at the synod on family plan to discuss weighty matters related to the status and treatment of Catholics in "unconventional relationships" and their presumed impact on the family, but I hope they reserve some time also to talk about the many pressures and night tremors faced by folks in conventional relationships, trying to be a family amid work, commutes and soccer matches.
