

TODAY'S READINGS

Comfort, give comfort to my people. (Isaiah 40:1)
The people of Israel were in crisis. Their Temple in Jerusalem had been burned to the ground. Their king had been taken captive by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And most of the population had been forced out of their homes and sent into exile. Everything they treasured about their role as God's holy people was taken away from them, and it left them traumatized, distressed, and despairing.

Into this sad situation, God told his prophet to speak words of comfort and tenderness to his people. Don't be afraid! The Lord is coming! He's going to gather you all together, as a shepherd gathers his sheep, and bring you back home. So get ready to welcome him and his deliverance.

Like the Israelites, we all need comfort from God. None of us is free from the sadness that can come from life in this world. It could be the pain of an illness, the wound from a broken relationship, or the challenge of unemployment or financial stress.

No matter what we are facing, God wants to comfort us. He wants to speak tenderly to our hearts and tell us that he is with us. And more than anything else, he wants to tell us that Jesus, who is "God with us," has opened heaven for us. We don't have to endure our challenges on our own. We don't have to go through this life doing nothing but trying our best and hoping for better days. We have access to the grace and comfort, the power and wisdom of God himself!

So no matter how difficult or demanding life may seem, let these truths bring you comfort. Remember that nothing prevented Jesus from coming two thousand years ago and that nothing will prevent him from coming again to bring heaven down to earth. And finally, remember that even as we wait for that time, nothing can prevent Jesus from coming into our hearts right now and comforting us with his love.

"Lord, I need you comfort. Fill me with your joy and peace. Teach me how to open my heart to you. Jesus, I love you!"

LAS LECTURAS DE HOY

Cuarenta años estuvieron peregrinando por el desierto los hijos de Abraham hasta que aprendieron a confiar en Dios. Jesús también fue al desierto a orar y ayunar en preparación para su ministerio público (Marcos 1,12-13).

Pero ¿qué es el desierto? Es, en realidad, aquella condición estéril, seca e inhóspita de nuestra antigua vida de pecado y separación de Dios; es esa parte de uno que quiere permanecer rebelde e indomable, sin entregarse a Dios.

La buena noticia es que no hay que esperar a haber vencido o dominado el desierto de la naturaleza humana antes de acercarnos a Cristo. De hecho, es al revés. Tenemos que dejar primero que Jesús entre en el desierto personal del corazón humano y Él lo irá transformando gradualmente.

El Señor nos invita al desierto de nuestra propia vida y así, al adentrarnos en aquellos lugares oscuros e inhóspitos, seguramente nos sorprenderemos de encontrarlo allí mismo, esperándonos. Jesús está en aquellos sitios en los que nos sentimos más abandonados e improductivos, y nos ofrece su curación y restauración. Cristo está allí, listo para quitar las malezas y convertir el suelo reseco del desierto en un jardín verde y frondoso y llenarlo con hermosas flores y todo tipo de frutos de dulce sabor.

El Señor ya nos perdonó, ya pagó el precio por nuestros pecados; todo lo que necesitamos hacer ahora es correr a su lado para pedirle perdón y sanación. Él enderezará el camino y quitará los obstáculos. Aprovechemos el Sacramento de la Reconciliación para experimentar el perdón de una manera positiva y concreta. Has de saber que cuando confieses tus pecados y recibas la seguridad del perdón de Dios, experimentarás el abrazo reconfortante de Jesús y podrás empezar una vida nueva de paz y pureza.

"Gracias, Jesús mío, por estar dispuesto a entrar en mi desierto, regarlo y limpiarlo. Ayúdame a estar más consciente de mis faltas, para que te las presente y reciba tu perdón. Amén."

MARRIAGES

Couples who are interested in celebrating the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral are encouraged to visit the parish website to review our guidelines for weddings. The next step is to call the Rectory at 202-347-3215 and ask for the priest of your choice or the priest on duty, who can speak to you about marriage preparation and the possibility of scheduling your wedding ceremony at the Cathedral. Couples are expected to contact us at least nine (9) months in advance of the date on which they hope to celebrate their wedding.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Make your way

Deserts and wildernesses can be beautiful, but they have an element of danger as well. They're good places to get lost for one thing, and in them you're vulnerable to forces of nature that are vastly more powerful than you. Sometimes, though, you have to travel through the trackless wastes to get where you want to go, and that's true spiritually as well. To reach the Promised Land, the Israelites had to walk through the desert; to return from Exile in Babylon they had to journey back to Jerusalem. John the Baptist called people out to the desert to repent. As you continue your Advent journey, remember that sometimes you have to walk through life's deserted stretches to arrive at the place where God is found.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11; 2 Peter 3:8-14; Mark 1:1-8 (5)

"Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!"

MONDAY, DECEMBER 5 ADVENT WEEKDAY

In praise of caretakers

When a person is seriously ill or injured, it is easy for the caretakers to get overlooked as we focus our sympathies and attention on the stricken person. But even when it is a labor of love, caretaking is hard work, unending and exhausting in many cases. Next time you visit an ill person, make it a point to offer the caretaker some concrete help: bring along a home-cooked meal, do the laundry, or spell them for an afternoon so they can run some errands or simply take some personal time. Let's take care of the caretakers in our midst—we will need them ourselves some day!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 35:1-10; Luke 5:17-26 (181)

"Some men brought on a stretcher a man who was paralyzed."

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6 FEAST OF NICHOLAS, BISHOP

The people's bishop

Even if church leadership makes you tear your hair out sometimes, you've got to love this bishop. Nicholas was a fourth-century superhero: saving poor girls from prostitution by providing them with dowries, restoring murdered boys to life, advising sailors how to navigate through storms, rescuing men consigned to execution, feeding a city on the brink of famine—and in his spare time arguing against heresies at the Council of Nicaea. What a diocese this Turkish prelate must have run! Pray that your local leader might have the patronage and guidance of this great saint.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 40:1-11; Matthew 18:12-14 (182)

"Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God."

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7

FEAST OF AMBROSE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

It's time for some fresh thinking

Like all great leaders, Saint Ambrose was an original thinker. He was an ardent advocate for the poor: "He who sent forth his apostles without gold had not need of gold to form his church. The church possesses gold, not to hoard, but to scatter abroad and come to the aid of the unfortunate." He also avoided rigidity when it was not helpful: "When I am in Milan, I fast; when I am in Rome, I do not." The answers to our current struggles with poverty and diversity are, like the kingdom of heaven, very near. We only need some original thinking to perceive them. In what ways do "the ways things are" cloud our vision? How can we practice seeing with new eyes?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 40:25-31; Matthew 11:28-30 (183)

"They will soar as with eagles' wings; they will run and not grow weary, walk and not grow faint."

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8 SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE

CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Conceive of this

The angel Gabriel addressed Mary as "full" of grace, with no place in her for sin, and while we are painfully aware that we are not full of love—that envy, pride, bitterness, and jealousy are within us as well—as Christians we believe that despite the sin-caused rift between humanity and God, God still chooses in our favor and gives us hope that all may yet be well. God's marvels not only enable virgins or elderly women to have babies but also let you and me respond to grace and ourselves become fertile with compassion and bearers of good news for the world.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20; Ephesians 1:3-6, 11-12; Luke 1:26-38 (689)

"I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word."

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9 ADVENT WEEKDAY

Get to know God's feminine side

Because we use the term "Father" so often to refer to God, we may forget that God is neither male nor female but rather ultimately beyond anything our human concepts and categories can express. Because we use words and images to communicate, however, it is good to remember that we have feminine as well as masculine ones we can use to talk about the divine. Feminine images primarily come from what's known as the Wisdom tradition, found in the latter half of Hebrew scripture in such books as Proverbs, Job, Sirach, and the Wisdom of Solomon. In fact, wisdom, often portrayed as a woman, is mentioned 222 times in scripture, including by Jesus, so be sure to remember her in your own prayers!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 48:17-19; Matthew 11:16-19 (185)

"Wisdom is vindicated by her works."

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10 ADVENT WEEKDAY

Save a seat at the table

"The peculiar grace of a Shaker chair," Thomas Merton observed, "is due to the fact that it was made by someone capable of believing that an angel might come and sit on it." Merton was mystic enough not only to believe that but to describe to you the angel seated there. For centuries before Jesus, the people of Israel likewise waited for the return of a prophet who seemed more angelic than human: Elijah the wonderworker, who rode to heaven in a fiery chariot. At every Passover the Jewish community keeps a chair for Elijah at the table. How do you make room for the holy?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 48:1-4, 9-11; Matthew 17:9a, 10-13 (186)

"In those days . . . there appeared the prophet Elijah whose words were as a flaming furnace."

Faith Direct is a secure system that works directly with your bank or credit card—much the same as other direct payments you may have set up for utility bills or mortgage payments.

When do transactions take place?

Transactions take place once per month on the 4th or the next business day. The total amount of your gifts for that current month (both offertory & second/special collections) will be debited in one monthly total. The Cathedral will receive the funds 4 business days later.

Can I stop, increase, or decrease my payment at any time?

Yes, by calling Faith Direct at 1-866-507-8757 (toll free) by emailing info@faithdirect.net, or by logging in to your account through www.faithdirect.net.

How does the Cathedral benefit from my participation with Faith Direct?

The Cathedral will see a substantial increase in net revenue, a decrease in administrative costs, and a clearer picture of cash flow for their needs.
