

Cathedral of Saint Matthew the Apostle
“From Racism to Grace-ism”
In honor of Catholic Black History in November

Movie Screening & Discussion

The Social Justice Committee invites all to celebrate Black Catholic History Month with a screening of the 2016 documentary, “13th,” an exploration of racial prejudice in the criminal justice system. Jesus calls us to run to the marginalized, to give voice to the voiceless and stand for human dignity and respect for all.

Saturday, November 18, 2017
North Conference Room of the Cathedral

2:00pm

Welcoming & opening prayer

2:30pm to 4:30pm

Movie screening of “13th”
 (Age restriction is 16 years or older)

4:30pm to 5:00pm

Open discussion on movie closing prayer

Refreshments will be served during the event.

To address issues of race in our local and wider community, St. Matthew’s can be a force for healing, dialogue and the nurturing of respect and dignity for all of God’s children.

We can boldly demonstrate Jesus’ call to action by bridging racial gaps through thoughtful dialogue that inspires action, raises consciousness, and gives voice to those who feel increasingly marginalized, targeted, and forgotten.

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle, North Conference Room
(Entrance on right side of the Cathedral, through garage entry)

1725 Rhode Island Ave. NW ✦ Washington, DC 20036 ✦ (202)347-3215 x552
Questions: Lydia Clegg at clegg_1carroll@comcast.net