Easter Sunday, 2024

My Dear Friends,

It is a joy to be able to welcome you to Saint Matthew's Cathedral on this glorious Feast of Easter. I do so in the name of Cardinal Wilton Gregory, as well as in my own.

Of all the times we gather as Christian believers, none is more important than this one. Easter is the greatest of all our feasts. It celebrates the mystery that is the very bedrock and foundation of our Christian faith, for, as St. Paul wrote, "If Christ has not risen, our faith is in vain." (1 Cor. 15:14)

But, Christ HAS risen, and your presence here in the Cathedral both affirms and celebrates that most startling and enduring of all realities. While we do not see him, we know he lives and that he is in our midst breathing life and hope into us, walking alongside us on our pilgrimage of faith, our journey toward the Kingdom.

I have no way of knowing what is in your heart as you come here on this Easter Sunday of 2024. For some, I am sure, there is joy and a keen sense of hope for the future as Spring with all its promise bursts forth all around us; for others, there may be the pain of illness or the grief that comes from the death of someone close. For all of us, there is the painful paradox of living in a world that is incredibly beautiful yet hopelessly violent at the same time. Death and life are never far apart in our world, it seems. But that is not the whole story. Easter proclaims for all to hear the one thing that really matters, the one thing we need to know above all else: that death does not have the last word. Life does!

My prayer today is that you will be renewed in faith and hope as you join in worship here at St. Matthew's Cathedral.

If you are a visitor, please know that you are warmly welcomed here. I hope you will find something today that will touch your heart, awaken your spirit, and make you want to return to this holy place again and again. If you are part of the regular family of St. Matthew's, I take this opportunity to thank you for all the ways you make the Risen Lord Jesus present in this parish and in this city: through your prayer, your faith, and your love that overflows in such generous and unselfish service, especially to the poor.

May the blessings of the Risen Lord Jesus be yours in abundance.

CONCLUDING RITE

SOLEMN BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

Celebrant: May almighty God bless you through today's Easter Solemnity, and in his compassion, defend you from every assault of sin.

All: Amen.

Celebrant: And may he who restores you to eternal life, in the Resurrection of his Only Begotten, endow you with the prize of immortality.

All: Amen.

Celebrant: Now that the days of the Lord's Passion have drawn to a close, may you who celebrate the gladness of the Paschal Feast come with Christ's help, and exulting in spirit, to those feasts that are celebrated in eternal joy.

All: Amen.

Celebrant: May almighty God bless you, the ✠ Father, and the ✠ Son, and the ✠ Holy Spirit .

All: Amen.

Deacon: Go in peace, alleluia, alleluia!

All: Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia!
