2019 - 2020
Inaugural Concert Series
The Great
Cathedral Organ

"The pipe organ is to be held in high esteem in the Latin Church, since it is its traditional instrument, the sound of which can add a wonderful splendor to the Church's ceremonies and powerfully lift up our minds to God and higher things."

Nathan Laube Dedicatory Recital

Friday, September 20, 2019 7:30pm

One of the most celebrated and sought-after recitalists in the world today, Nathan also serves as Assistant Professor of Organ on the faculty of the Eastman School of Music. His recent appearances have included the first inaugural recital of the restored Harrison & Harrison organ of King's College Chapel, Cambridge, as well as performances at Nôtre-Dame Cathedral in Paris, and St. Paul's Cathedral in London. He is uniquely qualified to launch this series celebrating the completion of our magnificent French Romantic organ in superb acoustics.

Paul Hardy Afternoon Recital Sunday, October 20, 2019 3:30pm

Paul Hardy has been the Principal Organist of the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle since 2000. He also assists the musicians at the Basilica of the National Shrine as organist and carillonneur. Paul studied organ with Dr. Robert Grogan. He also works as a Database and ETL Developer at American University in the Office of Information Technology.
