

What It Means to Be a Eucharistic Community

*Enriched by history;
facing new challenges*

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 9:30 – 10:30AM

VIRTUAL PARISH RETREAT

WITH RITA FERRONE

ZOOM INVITATION SENT UPON RSVP

Open to all parishioners, with a special encouragement for liturgical ministers

- ❖ How has the pandemic increased our appreciation of Eucharist?
- ❖ What does it mean to “proclaim the gospel of justice” through the liturgy?
- ❖ How does “thanks and praise” arise in challenging times?

Please rsvp by October 20 to Tom Stehle tstehle@stmatthewscathedral.org if you would like to attend this interactive retreat.

Registration is required in order to receive the Zoom invitation.

Please download the Zoom application prior to the retreat.

RITA FERRONE is an award-winning writer and frequent speaker on issues of liturgy and church renewal in the Roman Catholic tradition. An independent scholar whose work is acclaimed internationally, Rita is also the founding editor of The Yale ISM Review, an ecumenical journal of worship and the arts for the Yale Institute of Sacred Music. She is a contributing writer and columnist for Commonweal magazine and blogs at Pray Tell.