

Inaugural Concert Series The Great Cathedral Organ

CATHEDRAL OF ST. MATTHEW THE APOSTLE
Washington, District of Columbia

Celebrating the completed and fully-realized Lively-Fulcher Organ

"The pipe organ is to be held in high esteem in the Latin Church, since it is its traditional instrument, the sound of which can add a wonderful splendor to the Church's ceremonies and powerfully lift up our minds to God and higher things."

The Second Vatican Council,
Sacrosanctum Concilium

2019-2020 Inaugural Dedicatory Season

Nathan Laube
Dedicatory Recital

Friday, September 20, 2019
7:30pm Extended hours for garage parking!

One of the most celebrated and sought-after recitalists in the world today, Nathan also serves as Assistant Professor of Organ on the faculty of the Eastman School of Music. His recent appearances have included the first inaugural recital of the restored Harrison & Harrison organ of King's College Chapel, Cambridge, as well as performances at Nôtre-Dame Cathedral in Paris, and St. Paul's Cathedral in London. He is uniquely qualified to launch this series celebrating the completion of our magnificent French Romantic organ in superb acoustics. A reception in the Great Hall follows the concert.
