CATHEDRAL OF SAINT MATTHEW THE APOSTLE

Source: <https://www.synod.va/en.html>

Pope Francis teaches us to dream from the Love of our Triune God being with us at every step of our life, to come from the I to the We, to journey together in Geschwisterlichkeit. Bring your stories on this synodal path, let us transform any frustration into hope and togetherness in our local, national and global church, so that we grow in HIS love and in love for our church and for each other with the help of the Holy Spirit that we invoke with the Adsumus Prayer:

Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance
lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together
to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth
and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.

Amen.

On various occasions Pope Francis has shared what it means to be a synodal Church: a Church of listening and closeness. He has also described the attitudes and inner dispositions that each of us is called to assume in entering into the synod. They are set out in the Preparatory Document (nos. 24, 29) and in the Vademecum (paragraphs 2.3-2.4). We invite anyone considering joining our listening session to discern with these helping tools. Synodality is walking together, and it starts with you. On this journey, led by the Holy Spirit, we need to be ready for the new, the unexpected, the surprising, and at the same time this journey will be full of joy and hope. Come, let us walk together!
