Dear 5:30 Sunday Mass community:

Today is the final performance of ministry of the Contemporary Choir until the Sunday after Labor Day, September 11, 2022. We will continue to have cantor and piano this summer.

It is our dearest hope that, budget willing, we will be able to return to serving you each and every Sunday of the year, and to return to our full complement of musicians.

As always, it has been a joy to minister, musically, to this community, especially after the pandemic hiatus. See you in September!
